

Inland Region OA Heat Planning Contingencies
July 24, 2018
CalEOC Event: 2018-07-24-IREOC-Heat Event

Alpine	No plans.
Amador	Monitoring the situation, messaging about heat advisory through local radio station.
Butte	Monitoring the heat situation with the possibility of opening cooling centers.
Calaveras	Monitoring the situation
Colusa	No anticipated heat related activities.
El Dorado	Duty Officer Status, Monitoring, not opening cooling centers
Fresno	No plans.
Glenn	No anticipated heat related activities, provided info on air-conditioned public locations to cool down during usual business hours to the public.
Kern	Cooling Centers Open at the following locations: SAN JOAQUIN AND KERN RIVER VALLEY Shafter - Walker Senior Center, 505 Sunset Avenue - OPEN  DESERT Ridgecrest - Kerr-McGee Center, 100 W. California Avenue - OPEN
Kings	No plans.
Lassen	No plans.
Madera	Has excessive heat plans and will be opening cooling centers and county pools; prepared to take greater action if necessary
Mariposa	Excessive Heat Plan in effect. Department of Environmental Health is monitoring at this point.
Merced	Excessive Heat Plan in effect; all population centers in the county will have additional cooling centers open Tuesday – Thursday. County Libraries will be open as cooling centers as well. Public buses will provide free rides to and from cooling centers. County OES has released a PSA notifying residents of cooling center locations and bus information.
Modoc	Monitoring, no anticipated action.
Nevada	Monitoring and take action if needed.
Placer	Monitoring the weather and if the forecast changes, will activate or extend hours if needed.
Plumas	Monitoring the heat situation with the possibility of opening cooling centers.
Sacramento	Monitoring and messaging to ensure the public is aware of the effects of severe weather through on-going public education and awareness campaigns on how to plan and prepare for emergencies.
San Joaquin	Monitoring and using social media to share heat safety reminders.
Shasta	Monitoring the heat situation with the possibility of opening cooling centers.
Sierra	No plans.
Siskiyou	Monitoring, no anticipated action.
Stanislaus	Monitoring the situation and using social media to spread the message.
Sutter	No plans.
Tehama	Monitoring the heat situation with the possibility of opening cooling centers.
Trinity	Monitoring the heat situation with the possibility of opening cooling centers.
Tulare	No plans.
Tuolumne	No plans.
Yolo	No anticipated heat related activities, provided info on air-conditioned public locations to cool down during usual business hours to the public.
Yuba	No plans.